DESCRIPTION

The Cross-connector 120+ STS is a structural component for the Bosch Rexroth VarioFlow plus stainless steel system. It joins and stiffens straight track sections (STS) of size 120 across the conveying direction, giving the track construction dimensional stability. Suitable for applications with higher hygiene and corrosion requirements.

- Made of non-rusting steel 1.4301 for corrosion-resistant and washdown environments
- Matched to the 120 mm track width of the VarioFlow plus stainless steel system
- Supplied not assembled, packaging unit of 10 pieces
