DESCRIPTION

The K30x30 ESD cover cap closes open corner brackets in the Bosch Rexroth K30 profile system, keeping connection points free of dirt and safe from electrostatic discharge. Suitable for ESD-sensitive assembly workstations and production lines where protection of sensitive components is required.

- ESD-safe: eliminates electrostatic build-up at connection points
- Polypropylene construction: lightweight, chemically resistant, dimensionally stable
- Black finish: consistent appearance throughout the K30 profile system
- Pack of 10: cost-effective stocking for series installations
