DESCRIPTION

The Variofix Block for profile slot 10 secures surface elements and attachments to Rexroth aluminum profiles - either by tool-free snap-in clip or by bolted connection using the included M6 square nut. The PP housing keeps weight low at 16 g per piece while the galvanized steel square nut delivers a durable, re-releasable joint.

- Two mounting options: snap-in clip (tool-free) or M6 screw with square nut
- Ready to install - M6 square nut and M6 retainer ring included
- Lightweight PP housing (16 g per piece), corrosion-resistant for dry assembly environments
- Compatible with Rexroth profile slot 10 system
