DESCRIPTION

The 30x120 cover cap in signal gray gives Bosch Rexroth assembly technology bracket connectors a neat, finished appearance. The polypropylene construction keeps weight minimal while offering reliable impact resistance and corrosion-free service in typical workshop and production environments.

- Precise fit for 30x120 gusset connectors - no trimming or rework needed
- PP material: lightweight, corrosion-free, and flexible enough for secure snap-fit installation
- Signal gray finish integrates cleanly with Rexroth aluminium profile systems
- Pack of 20 - cost-effective for series assembly and stock holding
