ESD safe IEC 61340-5-1

DESCRIPTION

The 30x120 ESD cover cap snaps over gusset connectors in the Bosch Rexroth profile system, sealing the joint against dirt ingress and preventing electrostatic discharge at the connection point. PP construction with ESD properties makes it the correct choice for electronics assembly and production environments where IEC 61340-5-1 compliance is required.

- ESD-safe: dissipates static charge at the gusset connection
- Exact fit for 30x120 gusset connectors in the Rexroth profile system
- Polypropylene: lightweight, chemically resistant, dimensionally stable
- Black finish: consistent appearance across the assembly structure
- Pack of 20: cost-effective stock for series assembly
