DESCRIPTION

The 3842548868 cover cap provides a neat, protective finish for 90x90 gusset brackets in Bosch Rexroth aluminium profile systems. The lightweight PP shell shields the connection point from dust, swarf and minor impacts, and its signal gray colour integrates cleanly with standard workstation and cell structures.

- Exact fit for 90x90 gusset brackets - no trimming or modification needed
- PP material - lightweight, corrosion-free and resistant to common workshop chemicals
- Signal gray finish - consistent appearance across aluminium profile assemblies
- Pack of 20 - practical for series builds and stock replenishment
