DESCRIPTION

The SG-90 KPL ESD grab container base from Bosch Rexroth is the dedicated stand for SG-90 series grab containers at ESD-protected assembly workstations. The sheet steel housing in dusty gray (RAL 7037) keeps containers stable and dissipates electrostatic charge reliably - essential wherever electrostatically sensitive assemblies are handled.

- ESD-compliant design protects sensitive electronic components from discharge damage at the point of assembly
- Robust sheet steel construction for continuous use in series production and assembly lines
- Compact footprint (90 x 315 mm base) with a usable height of 149 mm
- Dusty gray RAL 7037 finish integrates naturally into standard assembly environments
